Celebrating God in the Psalms

This week we reviewed the summer series – looking back at why and how we are to celebrate God using the book of Psalms. We have defined celebration as “stopping together from our regular rhythms to acknowledge what is worthy of our attention”. So, this week during our normal Sunday morning worship service we took the time to praise God through the Psalms but also to reflect on who God is and what he has been doing in our lives.

As we begin the fall going deeper in God’s Word Sunday Morning Small Group – let’s take the time to get to know one another by reflecting and celebrating further what God has been doing in our lives together.

Praise the LORD.¹
Praise God in his sanctuary;
praise him in his mighty heavens.
²Praise him for his acts of power;
praise him for his surpassing greatness.
³Praise him with the sounding of the trumpet,
praise him with the harp and lyre, ⁴praise him with timbrel and dancing,
praise him with the strings and pipe,
⁵praise him with the clash of cymbals,
praise him with resounding cymbals.
⁶Let everything that has breath praise the LORD.
Praise the LORD.

PSALM 150

THIS WEEK:

Reflection: Think back over the last four months of summer: what things have you been praying for? What people or situations have been heavy on your heart before the Lord? Have you been pleading with God regarding anything? Has your focus been on God at all? Have you seen God answer your prayers in any specific way? Have you seen God shifting your focus elsewhere? Has God been changing you in surprising ways?

Application: How do you think you could stop from your regular rhythms today to acknowledge and praise and celebrate God?
